- Experience in writing scientific reports related to projects, monitoring project deadlines, organizing time-sheets;
- Good interpersonal skills and disposition to teamwork.
Article 2
Selection admission Requirements

For admission to this selection the following are required, under penalty of exclusion:

a) Qualifications: old system university degree or Bachelor’s degree (L), Master’s degree (LS) obtained in accordance with Ministerial Decree 509/99, or Master’s degree (LM) obtained in accordance with Ministerial Decree 270/04.

Applicants who have obtained their qualification abroad must express in application details of their qualification recognition.

For qualifications obtained abroad and not recognized as valid in Italy, a declaration of equivalence is required, or the start of a request for equivalence of one’s own qualification to the qualification required by the application call, in accordance with procedures as by art. 38 of Legislative Decree no. 165/2001 and art. 2 of Presidential Decree no. 189 of 30.07.2009 (see website http://www.funzionepubblica.gov.it/strumenti-e-controlli/modulistica). Applicants with a qualification obtained abroad who, at the time of application, are not yet in possession of the above certification must mention in the application form that the request for equivalence has been sent to the Department of Civil Service by the deadline of this call. According to current legislation, applicants will be admitted to the selection process subject to the outcome of said procedure, it being understood that equivalence of qualification must be possessed at the time of recruitment.

b) Italian citizenship (Italians outside the Republic are treated as State citizens) or citizenship of another European Union Member State; in addition, in accordance with the provisions of art. 38 of Legislative Decree no. 165/2001 as amended and supplemented by art. 7 of Law no. 97/2013, citizens of one of the European Union Member States or their family members who do not have citizenship of a Member State, who are entitled to residence permit or permanent residence, as well as third-country nationals who hold a EU long term residence permit or who are entitled to refugee status or subsidiary protection status, may also be admitted to the selection process;

c) no less than 18 years of age;

d) physical suitability for the job to which the selection refers; the Administration has the right, in accordance with current legislation, to subject competition winners to a medical check-up, when summoned to sign the employment contract;

e) enjoyment of civil and political rights;

f) being in a regular position with regard to military service (only for Italian male citizens born before 1985);

g) not having been convicted of any criminal offence which, under current legislation, may prevent an employment relationship.

Anyone who has been excluded from the active political electorate, or has been dismissed or dispensed from public employment for persistent inadequate performance, or has been declared fallen from State employment, according to art. 127, first paragraph, letter d) of the Consolidated text of provisions concerning the status of civil State employees, approved by Presidential Decree no. 3 of January 10, 1957, cannot access the selection process.

Candidates who do not hold Italian citizenship and are admitted to the competition as indicated above must also meet the following requirements:

a) enjoy civil and political rights also in their States of origin or belonging;

b) be in possession, with the exception of Italian citizenship, of all other requirements for citizens of the Republic;

c) possess adequate knowledge of the Italian language (this will be verified during the selection tests).

The above requirements must be possessed on the deadline date for submission of application to this selection admission.

This Administration guarantees equality and equal opportunity between men and women in access to employment and treatment at work.
Article 3

Exclusion from selection

The following are grounds for exclusion:

- lack of signature on the application form;
- failure in meeting the admission requirements provided in Article 2;
- failure in respect of application delivery deadline and submitting procedures as per art. 4 below.

In declarations relating to titles, lack of an attached document copy will determine invalidity of the declarations made; therefore, titles declared by the applicant will not be taken into consideration.

All applicants are admitted to the competition under reserve. In case an additional investigation should be necessary, applicants are required to regularize their position within the deadline peremptorily assigned.

Exclusion from the selection, for lack of one of the requirements provided for in this announcement, may be ordered at any time, by reasoned decision of the Managing Director.

Article 4

How and when to apply

Applications to selection admission, as well as relevant documents for the competition, must be, under penalty of exclusion, submitted electronically, using the dedicated digital application on the following page:

https://pica.cineca.it/unibg/

Applicants can register and access the platform using the Public Digital Identity System (SPID – security level 2). If an applicant does not have it, he/she can request it following procedures indicated on the website www.spid.gov.it. The digital application will necessarily require possession of an e-mail address, in order to carry out self-registration to the system.

Applicants must enter all required data to generate the application, and attach all documents in electronic PDF format.

No other procedures are permitted to submit applications or relevant documentation to participate in the selection.

Before application deadline, the system allows saving in draft mode, which can then be modified by applicants up to the indicated deadline.

The date of the application’s telematic submission will be certified by the computer system through a receipt, automatically sent by e-mail.

Applicants have the possibility to withdraw an already submitted application, through a specific application function, and to submit a new one, within the deadline.

The application must be completed and sent electronically no later than 12:00 noon (Italian time) on the thirtieth day following the day of publication of the call for applications on the University’s official electronic notice board. In the event that the deadline falls on a public holiday, the deadline is postponed to 12:00 noon (Italian time) on the first subsequent working day.

After the submission deadline has passed, the system will no longer allow you to access and submit the electronic form.

Each application will be assigned an identification number which, together with the competition code indicated in the information application, must be specified for any subsequent communication.

In case of access with SPID to submit the application form, it will not be necessary to sign it as it will be automatically acquired by the procedure. The presentation of applications not submitted through the Public Digital Identity System (SPID – security level 2) must be completed and concluded, under penalty of exclusion, in the following manner:
Article 5

Admission Application

In the application form, applicants must declare their name and surname, date and place of birth, tax code and residence; they must also indicate their elected address for the purpose of the procedure, as well as a telephone number, e-mail address and possible PEC.

- the list of attached elements, dated and signed;
- qualifications that the candidate considers useful for the purposes of the evaluation;
- for the concerned candidates, appropriate medical certification supporting the request for auxiliary tools and/or additional time.

Any change in the provided contact information must be promptly communicated to the PTA, Managers and CEL Service at the email address: concorsi.mobilita@unibg.it.

In accordance with Law 183/2011, it is not possible to accept or request certificates, but only declarations in lieu of certification or affidavit produced in place of the certificates themselves, signed by the interested party and presented together with a non-authenticated photocopy of the signers valid identity document.

In the competition application, citizens of non-EU countries regularly resident in Italy may use substitutive declarations as per articles 46 and 47 of Presidential Decree no. 445/2000, limited to the status, personal qualities and facts certifiable or attestable by Italian public bodies, while they must attach certificates or statements issued by the foreign State’s competent authorities, accompanied by a translation into Italian authenticated by the Italian consular authority, to certify conformity to the original, according to procedures indicated in art. 3 of D.P.R. 445/2000.

The Administration reserves the right to carry out appropriate checks on the declarations’ truthful content, in accordance with Presidential Decree 445/2000.

Titles, produced on plain paper, must be possessed at the moment of the announcement’s deadline date. Certificates issued by the competent authorities of the State of which the foreigner is a citizen must comply with regulations in force in that State and must also be legalized by the competent Italian consular authorities. Acts and documents drawn up in a foreign language must be accompanied by a translation into Italian, certified as conforming to the foreign text and authenticated by the competent Italian diplomatic or consular representative.

Article 6

Selection Committee

The competition selection panel is appointed by the Managing Director according to procedures included in the University Regulations for fixed-term technologists according to art. 24-bis of Law 240/2010 in force.

Article 7

Selection Procedure

The selection procedure is based on qualifications and an interview. The overall score, calculated on a 1-100 base, is determined by adding the score achieved in the interview to the points assigned through assessment of qualifications.

The selection consists in an assessment of the qualifications listed in art. 8 of this announcement, and an interview, aimed at verifying knowledge of the exam topics listed in art. 1.
The overall score is 100 points, broken down as follows:

a) titles: 30 points

b) interview: 70 points

The interview will be open to candidates who have obtained, in the qualification assessment, a score of no less than 18/30. To be eligible, candidates must then obtain in the interview a score of at least 42/70.

Article 8

Qualifications must be submitted according to the procedures provided in Article 4 of this announcement.

Only qualifications inherent to and qualifying for the position applied for will be evaluated.

a) educational and academic qualifications: max 5 points:
   - 3 points for PhD title
   - 1 point for a first-level master’s degree or specialization diploma of at least one year’s duration;
   - 2 points for second-level master’s degree;

b) service qualifications: activities performed, even not continuously, through a contract with Italian and foreign Universities, or other Italian or foreign, public or private Institutions and Research Institutes or other private companies, in particular: project management tasks, research grants/post-doc fellowships, experience in evaluating project proposals for competitive bids, WP coordination in European projects, Co-authoring of deliverables in European projects, will all be considered, up to a maximum of 15 points, calculated as follows:
   - 2 points per term, for activities carried out in Italian and foreign universities;
   - 1 point per term, for activities carried out in public research organizations and institutes;
   - 1 point per term, for activities carried out in private Research Institutes or other private companies;

c) other qualifications: up to a maximum of 10 points, calculated as follows:
   - Publications: up to a maximum of 5 points;
   - Post-graduate courses: up to a maximum of 3 points;
   - Other qualifications (teaching contracts, speeches in conferences and congresses, attendance in training courses related to the knowledge and skills required for the profile): up to a maximum of 2 points.

Article 9
Interview

The selection includes an interview, totally or partially in English, on the following subjects:

- University fundraising techniques;
- Project management;
- Knowledge of the main university funding opportunities, particularly in the European context (Horizon Europe), and in the national context (PNRR);
- Research projects writing, managing and reporting.

The interview may also include the solution of practical cases on the subjects listed above, in order to verify the applicants’ ability to perform the functions described in Article 1 of this announcement.

Computer skills assessment, under penalty of unsuitability, will concern the use of a personal computer and the most common software applications, and will take place on the date set for the oral test. The result of this assessment will not add up to determine the oral test score.

The oral test may be held by videoconference, as established by the Commission, providing the adoption of technical solutions that assure its publicity, identification of participants, security... of communications and their traceability. Candidates are required to provide a personal e-mail address at which they may be contacted by the Commission. Applicants will be required to show valid identification to attend the interview.

Article 10

Selection result

Results of the qualifications assessment will be published on the University of Bergamo website www.unibg.it in the section Competitions and selections (https://www.unibg.it/ateneo/amministrazione/concorsi-e-selezioni/personale-dipendente/personale-dirigenziale-e-tecnico) on the page dedicated to the competition.

On the same page will be published the test agenda and how to conduct the interview. Failure to attend the interview must be considered as renunciation of the competition for all purposes.

Interview results will be published on the institutional website on the page dedicated to this procedure. Any changes to the calendar as well as any other information related to this selection process will be communicated through publication of a notice on the University website www.unibg.it in the section Competitions and selections, with value of notification to all effects. It is the responsibility of each candidate to monitor the site periodically by consulting the notice page relating to this procedure.
